Nashville City Cemetery Arboretum

The Nashville City Cemetery features many tree-named streets, including Oak, Willow, Cherry, and Magnolia, and it is home to more than 300 trees, which have lined the streets and shaded the graves for nearly two centuries. Five of its majestic trees were nominated by NCCA board member Lyn C. James for the Nashville Tree Foundation's Big Old Tree Contest during its 25th anniversary year in 2011.

AGE RANGE

Between 1846 and 1979 more than 19,000 men, women, and children of all ages were buried here.

Is your ancestor here?

6/10 of the most common last names of those found here are still prevalent in the Nashville area today.
